perpors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fuctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-rided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above manned companies always have and keep risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital toter the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinstrance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage. Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainly given instead of an uncertainly. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

The Louisville Journal tries to make it elf witty over what it pleased to call "Lincoln's long, penetrating nose." We can assure it that the prominent feature in that glorious old man's physiognomy is just now clination of Fitzpatrick, who was nomina-ted on the Douglas ticket for vice-president, was received in Alton, Ill., an old citizen remarked that the Douglas party may have got rid of "patrick," but he thought they had "Fitz" yet.

Singular.—There have been eighteen elections of president. In eleven of them the names of the individuals elected ended with the letter N. With only one exception, the name of every president who has served two terms had the termination. In only one case has a candidate for re-election, with the N final in his name, been defeat ed, and even in this case the name of the successful candidate possessed this auspiscious termination.—Prov. Journal. This fact must be N-couraging to Lincoln and Hamlin. A Nashville paper says:

making "campaign documents" of "10,000 rails" which Lincoln and "a man named Hanks" are said to have split in 1830. Not to be outdone, the Baltimore convention de-most careful readers of the Scriptures have sometimes remarked that no matter how carefully or how frequently they have studied the Bible, they are sure to find something new-that is, new to them, of course, because the thought was always there, and their minds only become gradually prepared to discover it. The lesson is constantly enforced, in this way, that man is very much the same as formerly, and that the same things happen to the race now as in former times. But we were scarcely prepared to find so close a description of the claims of the republican candidate to distinction, as we see in Psalm 74, v. 5: "A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees."—Boston Courier. In New York, according to the sedate Courier and Enquirer, the caroling of the favorite songster, the bob a-link, has not only been changed but greatly improved.— Instead of " Bob a lincon"-" Bob a lincon' the fields, the meadows, and every cluster of waving grass, send forth the spirit-stirring note of "Abe-a-Lincon"—" Abe-a Lincon." A strange fact this, in ornithology; but if any of the democracy doubt it, let them take a run into the rural districts, and they will at once perceive how completely the political tone of the country has adapted itself to the air of freedom which proclaims the triumph of republicanism; and how even the feathered tribe unite in singing praises in behalf of one who has been selec ted to be the standard-beater of the army of freedom, which go forth to do battle for the

To heard brings hate—nor lefty things pursue;

He who climbs high endangers many a fall.

Envy's shade that ever waits on fame.

And off the sun that rises it will hide.

Trace not in life a vast expensive scheme.

But be thy wishes to thy asate allied.

Be mild to others—on thyself severe—

To truth shall shield thee, or from hart or fear.

Think not of bending all things to thy will,
Nor vainly hope that fortune shall befrend:
Inconstant, she—but be thou constant attl!
Whate or bettle, unto an bonest end.
Yet needless dangers never madly brave.
Kick nor thy naked foet against a hall or from experience the solution orace.
If well and pitcher strive which shall prevail,
Be in the cause as in a noishbor's clear. Be in the cause as in a neighbor's clear. So truth shall sheld thee, or from hart or fear.

Whatever happens, happy in thy mind,
Bu thou; nor at thy for in fife repine;
He 'scapes all ill whose bosom is resigned,
Nor way nor weather shall he always fine.
Beside, thy hone's not here; u journey this—
A pligrim, thou; then hie thee on thy way;
Look up to dod, intent or Henvenly bliss,
Take what the road affords, and pruise the pay;
Sum brutal husts, and seek the soul's high sphere.
So truth shall shield thee, or from lust or fear.

Humors of the Campaign

The Louisville Journal tries to make it self witty over what it pleased to call "Lincola's long, penetrating nose." We can assure it that the prominent feature in that glorious old man's physiognomy is just now the scender of attraction.

When the despatch announcing the declination of Fitzpatrick, who was nomina ed on the Douglas ticket for vice-president, was received in Alton, Ill., an old citizen remarked that the Douglas party may have got rid of "patrick," but he thought they had Fitz" yet.

SINGULAR .- There have been eighteen elections of president. In cleven of them the names of the individuals elected ended with the letter N. With only one exception, the name of every president who has served two terms had the termination. In only one case has a candidate for re-election, with the N final in his name, been defented, and even in this case the name of the successful candidate possessed this auspi-scious termination.—Prov. Journal. This fact must be N-couraging to Lincoln and Hamlin. A Nashville paper says: The republicans are gathering up and aking "campaign documents" of "10,000 rails" which Lincoln and "a man named Hanks" are said to have split in 1830. Not to be outdone, the Baltimore convention democracy, with the same object in view, are hunting up all the bricks the Little Giant has carried in his hat for the last twenty years. They are said to be very numerous. NOTHING NEW UNDER THE SUN.-The nost careful readers of the Scriptures have sometimes remarked that no matter how carefully or how frequently they have studied the Bible, they are sure to find something new-that is, new to them, of course, because the thought was always there, and their minds only became gradually prepared to discover it. The lesson is constantly en-forced, in this way, that man is very much the same as formerly, and that the things happen to the race now as in former. times. But we were scarcely prepared to find so close a description of the the republican candidate to distinction, as we see in Psalm 74, v. 5: "A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees."-Boston Courier.

In New York, according to the sedate Courier and Enquirer, the caroling of the favorite songsier, the bob a-link, has not only been changed but greatly improved.— Instead of "Bob a-lincon"—"Bob a-lincon" the fields, the meadows, and every cluster of waving grass, send forth the spirit-stirring note of "Abc-a Lincon"-" Abe-a Lincon." A strange fact this, in ornithology; but if any of the democracy doubt it, let them take a run into the rural districts, and they will at once perceive how completely the political tone of the country has adapted itself to the air of freedom which proplaims the triumph of republicanism; and how even the feathered tribe unite in singing praises in behalf of one who has been selected to be the standard bearer of the army of freedom, which go forth to do battle for the constitution and the dignity of free labor.

WHAT THE DEMOCRATS ARE FOR .- Some are for reviving the foreign slave trade: some for a Congressional clave gode for the territories; some for congress forbidding the territories to prohibit slavery within their limits; some for maintaining slavery in the territories through the judiciary; some for the "gurrent purrinciple"—that "if one man would enside another, no third man should object," fantastically called "popular sovereignty," but never a man among them in favor of federal prohibition of slavery in federal territories, according to the practice of our fathers who framed the government under which we live.—I Abraham Lincoln under which we live.—[Abraham Lincoln.
Going to Abraham's bosom is a consumpation of life devoutly to be wished. But a Connection grator graing the normal en-thusiasm for Lincoln, thinks that Abraham has got into the bosom of the people.

Some politicians are trying to prove that "Old Abe" is deficient in abeility.—Transcript.
The efforts of such politicians, neighbor will be abc-ortive. A government with "Abe" Lincoln at the head, and with "Bill"

Seward as a cabinet officer, we rather think will be conspicuous for abe bill-ity.—Boston Atlas. When is the Little Giant most Inn dis posed ?

and short lived? Little Giants. "HANGMAN's DAY."-Democratic aditors are playmed, because as they say, Lincolni was nominated on "hangman's day," and they see visions of the execution of modern democracy. The nomination of Lincoln and Hamlin was tantamount to a sentence of death, and they squirm, because No rogue e'er felt the halter draw. With good opinion of the law.

Humors of the Campaign.

The Louisville Journal tries to make it-self willy over what it pleused to call "Lin-coln's long, penetrating nose." We can assure it that the prominent feature in that glorious old man's physiognomy is just now he scenter of attraction. When the desputch announcing the de When the desputch amounting the de-clination of Fitzpatrick, who was nomina-ted on the Douglas ticket for vice-president, was received in Alton, III., an old citizen remarked that the Douglas party may have got rid of "patrick," but he thought they had "Fitz" yet.

SINGULAR.—There have been eighteen elections of president. In eleven of thom the names of the individuals elected ended with the letter N. Withouty one exceptions. the name of every president who has served two terms had the termination. In only one case has a candidate for re-election, with the N final in his name, been defeat ed, and even in this case the mone of the soccessful candidate possessed this assissions termination.—Prov. NOTHING NEW UNDER THE SEX.—The most careful readers of the Scriptures have sometimes remarked that no matter how carefully or how frequently they have studied the Bible, they are sure to find something new—that is, new to them, of course, because the thought was always there, and because the thought was always there, and their minds only became gradually prepared to discover it. The lesson is constantly enforced, in this way, that man is yery much the same as formerly, and that the same things happen to the race now as in former times. But we were scarcely prepared to find so close a description of the claims of find so close a description of the claims of the republican candidate to distinction, us we see in Psulm 71, v. 5: "A man was famous according as by had lifted up axes

The Popular Sovereignty Candidate for Vice-President.

Herschell V. Johnson, the Douglas can didate for vice president, was a member of the United States Senate from Georgia in 1348, by executive appointment to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Walter T. Colquitt.

In a speech on the Oregon bill, July 7, 1848, he took the most ultra ground on the question of slavery in the territories, going beyond what any southern man, unless Calboun himself, the prince of fire-eating disunionists, had then ventured to maintain. This speech, which is a peculiarly rich one for our northern democrats, may be found reported in full in the appendix to the Congressional Globe for that session, commencing on page 887.

According to Mr. Johnson, there is no clude slavery from the territories of the sovereignty party; but read what he says:

For the purpose of this question, it mat-ters not where the power of legislating for the territory resides—whether exclusively in congress, or jointly in congress and the inhabitants, or exclusively in the inhabitants of the territory; the power is precisely the same—no greater in the hands of one than the other. In no event can the slave-heider from the south be excluded from settling in such territory with his PROPERTY OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

Now "listen" to the candidate of the squatter sovereigns, and hear bim demolish popular sovereignty:

But suppose that congress have the right to establish a territorial government, only, and that, then, all further governmental control ceases, can the territorial legislature pass an act prohibiting slavery? Sure ed for eastern circulation, recommending ly not, For the moment you admit the right to organize a territorial government to exist in congress, you admit, necessarily, THE SUBORDINATION of the people of the ter ritory—their dependence on this govern nibus ride in Milwaukee. The Free Demoment for an organic law, to give them political existence. * * *

If, therefore, an act of the territorial government, prohibiting slavery, should be sent up to congress for approval, they would be bound to withhold it, upon the ground of its being an act which congress themselves could not pass.

It is a queer sovereignty which is subordinate to another power, but such appears like Messrs. Pryor, Clingman, Toomis and so be the kind which the Douglas democra-Ly are upholding. Mr. Johnson declares supporters at the south. distinctly that congress has absolute sovereignty in the territories, and that territorial legislatures can do nothing without the consent of congress, and, finally, that congress has no power or duty in relation to slavery, las, in aid of the scheme of throwing the except to PROTECT it the same as other property.

It is possible that the followers of Douglas in this state think they are upholding the doctrine of the right of the people of a territory to admit or exclude slavery, as they please, but they are much mistaken .-Their candidate is on the other side of this question-he is a believer in congressional intervention, and repudiates the "great principle" of Douglas entirely. Their must be some "cheat" about this-a fraud has been practiced upon the northwestern democracy in presenting this man Johnson to them as a candidate fit to represent their cherished doctrine of popular sovereignty, ing five hands, in one day took out $340, If they have any spirit left, they will repudiate him.

Hon. Herschel V. Johnson is having a hard time of it in stumping Georgia. He made a speech in Macon last week; which was hadly received, and at the conclusion he had the pleasure of seeing himself burnt in effigy from the windows of his. hotel. They look upon him as being in bad company on the ticket with Douglas, a northern man, who pretends to be in favor of squatter sovereignty. It must be as dif-Scult to reconcile the principles of Douglas and Johnson in Georgia, as it is here-Douglas declaring that the people of a territory can vote slavery out of it, (if the su- cute the laws, but has one man ever been preme court does not forbid) and the other hung for this crime since that president took esserting that they cannot prohibit it, and Political News.

A great deal of fear has been entertained and expressed by certain people, that the views of Dr. Lord of Dartmouth College, relative to slavery, etc., would corrupt the minds of those students under his charge. How groundless these fears are, the following exhibit of the political status of the students shows: Republicans 230, democrats, including both wings 78. Union party men 5.

The result of the Oregon election is a terrible blow to the democrats, who confidently expected Shiel's election, and the choice of a legislature favorable to Lane and his friends. It is surmised that this election will add thousands to the republito be on the strongest side, that neither possible chance.

At a pole raising in Saginaw, Mich., on the 8th, Henry Kerchoff and F. Leopold, two prominent German citizens who have hitherto been the leaders of the German demorracy in that city, appeared upon the stand and renounced their allegiance to the democratic party. There is great enthusiasm among the Germans of that locality for Lincoln and Hamlin.

Among the democratic organs which have declared for Breckinridge in western New York are the Buffalo Evening Post, the Dunkirk Press (the only democratic paper in Chatauque), and the Genessee Democrat.

The Vevay (Ind.) News has come out for Breckinridge and Lane. In so doing, it says it "but expresses the will of two-thirds of the democratic party in old Switzerland county."

The Atlanta (Ga.) Southern Confederacy, notorious for its "black and white lists" of northern merchants a few months ago, has come out for Douglas. Like Johnson, the Douglasite candidate for vice president, this organ belongs to the fire eating disunion school.

No Fusion in Inlinois.-The Breckinridge and Lane state convention met at Springfield, Ill., yesterday, in which Douglas was bitterly denounced by the chairman. A full Breckinridge and Lane ticket was nominated including electors. Their nominee for governor is Thomas M. Hope, of Madison county. Specches were made by Isaac Cook, W. H. Cartin, and B. T. Barke. One hundred and five guns were fired in honor of the nominations.

An Interesting Letter.

We find the following interesting letter from John Hanks-Lincoln's early partner in the rail-splitting business—in the Decatur Chronicle, Hanks is an bonest old Jackson Democratic farmer, who shared with the next President the privations and hardships of pioneer life in Illinois, before the days of railroads and canals. His letter is a plain, unvarnished statement, that will find a response in the breasts of hundreds of old Democratic farmers of the pioneer times Editor of the Decatur Chronicle:

DEAR SIR: The following item appeared in the Columbus Statesman a few days ago, which I take from the Coles County Ledger: " MANES AGAINST LINCOLN."

"We were informed a day or two ago by delegate to the Baltimore Convention, who called at our office, that John Hanks, the can vote by showing those who always want | man who assisted Abe Lincoln to make those rails about which the Republicans are makwing of the democracy has the slightest ing such a terrible hubbub, has announced himself opposed to the election of Lincoln. Hanks, who has never been a Democrat, is against the Republican nominee because he knows Lincoln to be a humbug, and nothing else. Hurrah for Hanks!'

To this article I desire briefly to reply.-If my choice for President, or how I shall vote as between the candidates for that office is worth considering at all, I claim it as a: simple right to be correctly represented. I am but a farmer, and regret to say not an educated one. Í have never been a caudidate for any office, nor do I expect ever to be; whilst I can with all truthfulness say this, yet I have never been a negative man in politics. From my boyhood I have been a constant voter with the Democratic party in all essential elections: I have thought that party to be upright and straightforward in all the principles it has really adopted.— So late as 1858 I voted for Mr. Douglas and against my old friend Lincoln. For forty years I have looked upon the party with oride and hailed its success with pleasure : but as Mr. Douglas made a speech in Deca tur in 1858, and in my hearing spoke so pleasantly and so honorably of the old Whig party and Mr. Clay, its leader, after having for fifteen years, in discussing general poli tics, when I used to love to listen to him so well, spoke so complainingly and so abusively of that party and of Mr. Clay, charging upon it and him many bad and mean things, until listening at him I learned to look upon both as dangerous and full of evil. The thought struck me that for the future I would never judge of a party or its leaders by what an opponent might say, and this conclusion I mean to follow the balance of my life. How foolish it is to abuse a party because my friend may do so, and then praise the same party because that friend may change and do so; he may be designing-I would, in all probability be a dupe. Ever since Mr. Douglas made that speech in 1855 like he used to abuse the old Whigs. I am tired of this kind of warfare; I think it is not right to do so, and as Mr. Douglas further said in that speech that he was in the habit of sometimes changing his politics, I him to begin to excuse and cease to abuse the Republicans, and made up my mind to jet him go in time.

life of me I can see nothing in the republi-can party that any honest democrat can oppose. It is true, were they such a party as Mr. Douglas used to say they were, I could ser objectionable features about it; but then is it wise to believe everything Mr. Douglas rescued during the mass convention held at said, when he tells us he sometimes changes, Milwaukee. We understand that Jehu "flew and when we have near us honest men, known to be purely honest for more 'than thirty years, who deny all this and propose together, but he was more scared than to tell us the true state of the case, and to give us the true principles of that party? vices to Bomba of Naples, who is alarmed I think not. Besides this, when we have just now at the prospect of some of his for years been opposed, in politics, to a man who has again and again seen his party defeated, and has himself sometimes failed, and still seen that man true to his colors. re-arming and re-entering the field to try to uphold and successfully plant his colors on the side of victory, when all the time we knew he had but to change once to win, and yet never has changed, I think I may say never faltered, how are we to respect him? Such a man I have known Mr. Lincoln for long cold days we have journeyed over the wild prairies and through the forests with gun and axe, and though it is not pleasant to refer back to it, well do I remember when we get out together in the cold winter to cut and man! rails on the Sangamon river, in Macon county, thirty years ago, to enclose his father's little home, and from day to day kept at work until the whole was finished and the homestand fenced in. We often swapped work in this way, and vet during the many years we were connected together as laborers, sometimes flat-boating, sometimes hog-driving, sometimes rail making, and too, when it was nearly impos-sible to got books, he was a constant read-er; I was a listener. He settled all the disputes of the young men in the neighborgood, and his decisions were always abided

by. I never knew a man so honest under all circumstances, for his whole life. Thus associated with Mr. Lincoln, learned to love him, and when, in 1858, he was a candidate for the first time within my reach, against my feelings, and I may say convictions, my old party ties induced mi to vote for Mr. Douglas. My democratic friends all declared Lincoln was an abolitionist. I heard him make a speech in Decatur just before the election and I could see nothing bad in it, but I was told by the party he was wrong. I could not see how it could be, but they said so, and I was a democrat and went it. My wife use to say to me that some day Abe would come out and be something; I thought so too, but I could not see how a man in the lower walks of life, a day laborer, and hopelessly poor would ever stand much chance to get up very high in the world. At last, one day at home, we heard that the republican state convention was to be held at Decatur, and that they were going for Abe Lincoln for president.

As soon as I found this out, I went into town and told a friend of Abe's that as great and honest merit was at last to be warded in the person of my friend Mr. Lincoln, by the republican party, I thought of the hard and trying struggles of his early days, and recollecting the rails we had made together thirty years ago, made up my mind to present some of them to that convention as a testimonial of the beginning of one of the greatest living men of the age, belleving they would speak more in his praise than any orator could, and honor true labor more than the praise of men of the resolutions of conventions. Un our way to get the rails, I told this friend of old Abe that if Abe should be nominated for President I would vote for him; everybody knows what Let us put a man in the presidential chair he has been, and I rejoice that I live to give Let us put a man in the presidential chair the sestimony to his goodness and honesty, who will do his duty and uproot this bloody and hope I shall live to vote for him for and hope I shall live to vote for him for or to good shipping brands. Canadian ber. Is there anything wrong in this? who ought to refuse to vote for as good and as sales 50,000 bushes 1,27a1,29 Milwaukee great a man as he is. I know that in voting for him I vote with the republican party, and will be considered as adopting its principles; as I now understand them I see no good reason why I may not do so; our

ry has divided the democratic party; no NEW ADVERTISEMENTS hody can blame republicanism for the destruction that came upon us at Charleston slavery has disputed us-it has united the republican party; if there is any good about the question, they have it all, and we have the trouble. If I understand Mr. Douglas now, he occupies a position on this question just as distasteful to the south as Mr. Lincoln does-with this clear difference : the south seem to understand Mr. Lincoln's position better than his, and to respect it a good deal more, and I am convinced if Mr Couglas does not reflect the nigger he does the mulatto, and one brings just as much in Mobile as the other, and stands as high in the market. Many of my democratic neighbors will

The Popular Severeignty Candidate for Vice-President.

Herschell V. Johnson, the Douglas can didate for vice-president, was a member of the United States Schate from Georgia in 1848, by executive appointment to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Walter T. Colquitt. In a speech on the Oregon bill, July 7, 1948, he took the most ultra ground on the question of slavery in the territories, going beyond what any southern man, unless Calboun himself, the prince of fire-eating rich one for our northern democrats, may be found reported in full in the appendix to One hundred and five gams were fired in tired of this kind of warfare; I think it is the Congressional Globe for that session, commencing on page 887. According to Mr. Johnson, there is no power in the government which can exclude slavery from the territories of the country. This is a very singular position to be taken by the caudidate of the popular sovereignty party; but read what he says: For the purpose of this question, it matters not where the power of legislating for the territory resides -- whether exclusively in congress, or jointly in congress and the inhabitants, or exclusively in the inhabithan the other. In no event can the slaveheiler from the south be excluded from settling in such territory WITH BIS PROPERTY OF EVERY DESCRIPTION. Now "listen" to the candidate of the squatter sovereigns, and hear him demolish popular sovereignty: But suppose that congress have the right to establish a territorial government, only, and that, then, all further governmental control ceases, can the territorial legislature pass an act prohibiting slavery? Surely not, For the moment you admit the right to organize a territorial government to exist in congress, you admit, necessarily, THE SUBOBDINATION of the people of the terment for an organic law, to give them political existence.

If, therefore, an act of the territorial government, prohibiting slavery, should be sent this damaging impediment. Sensible. up to congress for approval, they would be could not pass.

It is a queer sovereignty which is subordinate to another power, but such appears to be the kind which the Douglas democra-Ly are upholding. Mr. Johnson declares distinctly that congress has absolute sovereignty in the territories, and that territorial legislatures can do nothing without the consent of congress, and, finally, that congress has no power or duty in relation to slavery, except to recover it the same as other

It is possible that the followers of Douglas in this state think they are upholding the doctrine of the right of the people of a territory to admit or exclude slavery, as they please, but they are much mistaken.-Their candidate is on the other side of this question—he is a believer in congressional intervention, and repudiates the "great principle" of Douglas entirely. Their must the Arkanses river, about 120 miles south be some "cheat" about this-a fraud has west of Denver. He says the California been practiced upon the northwestern dem. Mr. Jervis, Superintendent of the Mil. & Miss. railroad has been overhauled in Milwaukee for issuing a bandbill intended for eastern circulation, recommending passengers to take the Northwestern road at Chicago and then the Mil. & Miss. road to Prairie du Chien, to avoid a mile of omritory-their dependence on this govern- nibus ride in Milwaukee. The Free Democrat thinks this handbill from Mr. Jervis, so far as it has any effect, should be only to incite their business men to the removal of Andrew Johnson of Tennessee, who bound to withhold it, upon the ground of its being an act which congress themselves was one of many candidates proposed by the Donglas interest for the vice presidency, has surrendered to Mr. Breckinridge, like Messrs. A Washington telegram gravely states that Senator Bright & Co. have resolved to run no Breckinridge ticket in Indiana, but "allow" that state to go for Douglas, in aid of the scheme of throwing the election into the house. We recken that Indiana has a way of her own this time. and will not "allow" herself to be carried for anybody but Lincoln and Hamlin.

An Interesting Letter.

We find the following interesting letter from John Hanks-Lincoln's early partner in the rail-splitting business---in the Decatur Chronicle. Hanks is an honest old relative to slavery, etc., would corrupt the Jackson Democratic farmer, who shared with the next President the privations and hardships of pioneer life in Illinois, before the days of railroads and canals. His letter is a plain, unvarnished statement, that will find a response in the breasts of hundreds of old Democratic farmers of the pioneer times Editor of the Decatur Chronicle: DEAR SIR: The following item appeared

" HANKS AGAINST LINCOLN." "We were informed a day or two ago by a delegate to the Baltimore Convention, who called at our office, that John Hanks, the man who assisted Abe Lincoln to make those rails about which the Republicans are makwing of the democracy has the slightest ing such a terrible hubbub, has announced himself opposed to the election of Lincoln. Hanks, who has never been a Democrat, is against the Republican nominee because he knows Lincoln to bea humbug, and nothing else. Hurrah for Hanks!"

If my choice for President, or how I shall vote as between the candidates for that office is worth considering at all, I claim it as a simple right to be correctly represented. I am but a farmer, and regret to say not an educated one. I have never been a caudidate for any office, nor do I expect ever to be; whilst I can with all truthfulness say this, yet I have never been a negative man in politics. From my boyhood I have been a constant voter with the Democratic party in all essential elections; I have thought that party to be upright and straightforward in all the principles it has really adopted.-So late as 1858 I voted for Mr. Douglas and against my old friend Lincoln. For forty years I have looked upon the party with pride and hailed its success with pleasure; but as Mr. Douglas made a speech in Decatur in 1858, and in my hearing spoke so pleasantly and so honorably of the old Whig party and Mr. Clay, its leader, after having for fifteen years, in discussing general politics, when I used to love to listen to him so well, spoke so complainingly and so abusively of that party and of Mr. Clay, charging upon it and him many bad and mean things, until listening at him I learned to look upon both as dangerous and full of evil. The thought struck me that for the future I would never judge of a party or its leaders by what an opponent might say, and this my life. How foolish it is to abuse a party because my friend may do so, and then praise the same party because that friend may nominated including electors. Their nomi- change and do so; he may be designing-I nee for governor is Thomas M. Hope, of would, in all probability be a dupe. Ever tain. This speech, which is a peculiarly Madison county. Speeches were made by since Mr. Douglas made that speech in 1855 Isaac Cook, W. H. Cartin, and B. T. Barke. like he used to abuse the old Whigs. I am not right to do so, and as Mr. Douglas further said in that speech that he was in the habit of sometimes changing his politics, I him to begin to excuse and cease to abuse the Republicans, and made up my mind to jet him go in time.

> life of me I can see nothing in the republican party that any honest democrat can op-The nerves of the democracy were pose. It is true, were they such a party as Mr. Douglas used to say they were, I could known to be purely honest for more than thirty years, who deny all this and propose to tell us the true state of the case, and to give us the true principles of that party? I think not. Besides this, when we have for years been opposed, in politics, to a man who has again and again seen his party defeated, and has himself sometimes failed, and still seen that man true to his colors, re-arming and re-entering the field to try to uphold and successfully plant his colors on the side of victory, when all the time we knew he had but to change once to win, and yet never has changed, I think I may say never faltered, how me to respect him? Such a man I have known Mr. Lincoln for > > thirty years to be. In boyhood's days we toiled together;man; are the days we have larged the heavy oar together on the Ohio, the Illinois and the Mississippi rivers; many are the long cold days we have journeyed over the wild prairies and through the forests with gun and axe, and though it is not pleasant when we set out together in the cold winter to cut and maul rails on the Sanganion river, in Macon county, thirty years ago, to enclose his father's little home, and from day to day kept at work until the whole was finished and the homestand fenced in. We often swapped work in this way, and yet during the many years we were connected together as laborers, sometimes flat-boating, sometimes hog-driving, sometimes railmaking, and too, when it was nearly impossible to get books, he was a constant reader: I was a listener. He settled all the disputes of the young men in the neighborhood, and his decisions were always abided by. I never knew a man so honest under > > all circumstances, for his whole life. Thus associated with Mr. Lincoln, I learned to love him, and when, in 1858, he was a candidate for the first time within my reach, against my feelings, and I may say convictions, my old party ties induced me to vote for Mr. Douglas. My democratic friends all declared Lincoln was an abolisee nothing bad in it, but I was told by the party he was wrong. I could not see how t could be, but they said so, and I was a could not see how a man in the lower walks of life, a day laborer, and hopelessly poor would ever stand much chance to get up very high in the world. At last, one day at home, we heard that the republican state convention was to be held at Decatur. and that they were going for Abe Lincoln

As soon as I found this out, I went into town and told a friend of Abe's that as awarded in the person of my friend Mr. Lincoln, by the republican party, I thought of the hard and trying struggles of his early days, and recollecting the rails we had made together thirty years ago, made up my mind to present some of them to that convention as a testimonial of the beginning of one of the greatest living men of the age, believing they would speak more in his praise than any orator could, and honor true labor more than the praise of men or the resolutions of conventions. On our way to get the rails, I told this friend of old Abo that President of the United States next November. Is there anything wrong in this? who Wheat m'k't firm, particularly for shipping. It is rather remarkable, says the ought to refuse to vote for as good and as sales 50,000 bushels 1,27a1,29 Milwaukeo body can blame republicanism for the destruction that came upon us at Charleston; slavery has disunited us-it has united the republican party; if there is any good about the question, they have it all, and we have the trouble. If I understand Mr. Douglas now, he occupies a position on this question just as distasteful to the south as Mr. Lincoln does-with this clear difference: the south seem to understand Mr. Lincoln's position better than his, and to respect it a good deal more, and I am convinced if Mr. rouglas does not reflect the nigger he does the mulatto, and one brings just as much in Mobile as the other, and stands as high in Many of my democratic neighbors will say I have done wrong, but I know there are many who would do as I have done, were it not they do not feel willing to break away from party ties and to encounter the "the talk" of old friends. As long as I have "Old Abe" to lead me, I know I shall never go very far from right. Should he be elected president and find any trouble in steering his new boat, he has only to remember how we used to get out of hard places by rowing straight ahead, and never by making short turns. The tallest oaks in the forest have fallen by his giant arm; he still wields a tromendous maul; out of the largest timber he can make the smallest rails; I have seen him try a tough cut and fail once; the second trial he never failed to use it up. Though not a very beautiful symbol of honesty, I think the rail a fitting one, and mean to present Ahe with one of his own make, should he be elected, in the city of Washington, on the day of his inauguration, to be kept in the White House during his administration. JOHN HANKS.

No Parce To-Morrow.-In order to give those employed in our office an opportunity to attend the republican mass meeting at Beloit, no paper will be issued tomorrow. From present appearances there will be so general a stampede from our city, that there will be but few left to read the paper, except democrats, if it should be printed; and as the news generally is not very agreeable to them, about these days, they will not, we hope, be particularly disapcointed.

Ho! for Beloit.

There will be a very large turn-out from our city to the republican mass meeting at Another section will take the ears in the morning; and still another crowd will go down in the eight o'clock train in the evening, to witness the torch light procession of the Wide Awake companies who will be present. Altogether there will be a great time at Beloit, and it will be good to be there.

THE EXCURSION TO MADISON.—The excursionists of the sabbath school of the Congregational church of this city, left this morning at eight o'clock for Madison .--There were eighteen cars well filled with as there are hundreds of otherwise splendid farms which are at a sad discourt for want city seeking pleasure in a social excursion.

of water. Can this drawback be remedied? There were eighteen cars well filled with as city seeking pleasure in a social excursion. May they enjoy themselves, and return in safety to their homes.

WIDE AWARES .- There will be a street drill of the Wide Awakes this evening .-This company is doing the thing up right, and is bound to prosper.

The Chicago Herald, (Douglas dem.) despondingly, but truly, says:

"The division every day becomes more state.
The prospect of harmonious action, to any extent, becomes more and more dim. A futal malice seems to have eaten into our very hearts. A Cimmercan dark-ness thickens along the line of our political vision. We rush upon our fate.

The New York Tribune of the 4th inst. has a long article reviewing the condition of the United States and Canada, and while naming each state omits to notice or men tion Wisconsin. Is the omission accidental or designed?-Free Democrat.

Probably by design, as the Tribune has manifested a hostility towards Wisconsiu on several occasions before.

JUDGE PAINE AND THE HABEAS CORPUS.-Much misunderstanding seems to exist with reference to the recent action of Judge Paine on the application of the friends of Booth on the application of the friends of booms for a writ of habeas corpus. If we are cor-rectly informed, the Judge simply re-affirm-ed his position before taken, that it was not competent for him to act because of his previous relation to the prisoner as counsel.-It is true a new question was raised—that of the legality of using the Custom House as a prison, as long as the jails of the state were at the service of the government. But the Judge considered that all these questions were subordinate to the chief question of the constitutionality of the law, and as that was the point on which he had committed himself as counsel, he was estopped from nating. All assertions then, that Judge Paine refused the writ—are without founda-tion. He simply re-affirmed his former position. - Free Dem. The Commissioner has reduced the guard service at the prison, in consequence of the near completion of the prison wall, nearly a thousand dollars a year—this is quite an item, and cannot fail to be approved by the people who feel the force of a practical economy, in the administration of their public trusts .- Prison City Item.

Robert Irwin, Esq., has just returned from a six weeks visit to different parts of Pennsylvania, and reports republicanism on the gain in that state. He says the democrats there are going mostly for Breckinridge, having become disgusted with "whiffling Douglas." That state is sure to elect Cur tin, rep., for governor, in October, and will cast her electorial vote for Lincoln, in November. Let it be recorded.—La Crosse Republican.

MESSES. EDITORS :- Were you at Evansville, last Monday evening, at the "Coronation of the Rose"? "No." Well, you. should have been. It would have done your care-cankered editorial heart good; it would have taken the kinks all out of your brain and the wrinkles from your countenance, and you would have gone home to dream that you were a very blessed morning glory, with a whole flock of bright-haed humming birds sipping dew drops and honey out of your delighted heart. Just think of it, flowers and music! As if you should walk into some flower garden and, looking about you, see on every side circles of bright tulips, fair lilies, sweet violets, pretty mignionettes and helitropes, levely crocuses, splendid dahlias, stately holly- FANCY DRY GOODS! hocks and sunflowers, beautiful roses and tiny heather bells,-and then all at once should hear these flowers commence singing Beloit to-morrow. Well, sirs, just such a performance you missed last Monday evening-just such, only a great deal more so. But if you will present yourself in Chapel Hall, in Evansville Seminary, next week Friday, July 20th, you will hear a repetition of the same delightful music, and see the same beautful flowers. FARM RESERVOIRS .- In the northwes A Wisconsin farmer, who had such a farm, constructed a reservior, or ravine cistern as he called it, and recommends the following plan: First determine the place; then the size you want, say 10x15 feet, and 10 feet deep. Unless the bottom be rock or gravel, dig it out in the shape of the bottom of a bath tub, begin the well in the centre of the bottom and build an inverted arch for the side to rest on. Then build the hight you want your walls and arch over, if you have plenty of the right kind of stone, if not, plank it, cover over and let it settle and dry out before you plaster it. Build a dam across the water run with the earth you dug out, so as to let the water settle some before you let it in the cistern; what little mud runs in will not injure the plaster any, and you can clean it out every time you get a chance.

Another plan is, to construct a dam across the ravine out of the earth taken from the bottom of the proposed reservoir. And let Make the dam very thick at the bottomtwenty feet is not too much-and at the top let it be loaf shaped, or rounding. On this dam, and in the bottom of the reservoir. salt your cattle, horses, and sheep, for several weeks, by sprinkling the salt on the ground. Let them tramp and pack every square foot of the surface. Then sod the outer slope of the dam and wait till the rain comes. If the work be well done, it will not wash in the heaviest rains. The reservoirs should be constructed in the dryest seasons—August or September—and the stock should have access to only a portion of it, fenced off by itself, and deep-ened. Ten feet is not to deep for a reser-voir. Plant willow around the edges, and, if possible, cover the bottom with gravel Fish will thrive in it, and keep the water pure. We have seen several such artificia lakes in Ohio and Kentucky. Cassina M. Clay has one or two on his farm. They cost very little, and are of incalculable ben-

The Popular Rovereignty Candidate for Vice-President.

Herschell V. Johnson, the Douglas can didate for vice-president, was a member of the United States Senate from Georgia in 1848, by executive appointment to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Walter T. Colquitt.

In a speech on the Oregon bill, July 7 1848, he took the most ultra ground on the question of slavery in the territories, going beyond what any southern man, unless Calhoun bimself, the prince of fire-eating disunionists, had then ventured to maintain. This speech, which is a peculiarly rich one for our northern democrats, may he found reported in full in the appendix to the Congressional Globe for that session, commencing on page 887.

According to Mr. Johnson, there is no nower in the government which can exclude slavery from the territories of the country. This is a very singular position to be taken by the candidate of the popular sovereignty party; but read what he says:

For the purpose of this question, it mut-ters not where the power of legislating for the territory resides—whether exclavitly te territory resides and the congress and the congress, or jointly in congress and the inhabitants, or exclusively in the inhabitants. tants of the territory; the power is precise ly the same -no greater in the hands of one han the other. In no event can the slave holder from the south be excluded from set iling in such territory with his property OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

Now "listen" to the gundidate of the squatter sovereigns, and hear him demelish popular sovereignty:

But suppose that congress have the right to establish a territorial government, only, and that, then, all further governmental and a congress of the territorial besides control ceases, can the territorial legisla-ture pass in act prohibiting slavery? Succ-For the moment you admit the right to organize a territorial government right to organize a territorial government to exist in congress, you admit, necessarily, THE SUBORDINATION of the people of the territory—their dependence on this government for an organic law, to give them potential axistence. litical existences

11, therefore, an act of the territorial goverunent, prohibiting slavery, should be sent up to congress for approval, they would be bound to withhold it, upon the ground of its being an act which congress themselves could not buss.

It is a queer sovereignty which is suborey are upholding. Mr. Johnson declares supporters at the south. listincily that congress has absolute soversignly in the territories, and that territorial legislatures can do nothing without the consent of congress, and, finally, that congress lass no power or duty in relation to slavery, except to reover it the same as other

It is possible that the followers of Dougles in this state think they are upholding the doctrine of the right of the people of a territory to admit or exclude slavery, as they please, but they are much mistaken .-Their candidate is on the other side of this mestion-he is a believer in congressional intervention, and repudiates the "great principle" of Douglas entirely. Their must be some "cheat" about this-e fraud has If they have any spirit left, they will repudiate him. 1828 How, Herschel V. Johnson is having a hard time of it in stumping Georgia. He made a speech in Macon last week, which was hadly received, end at the conclusion he had the pleasure of seeing himsolf burnt in effige from the windows of his hotel. They look upon him as being in bad company on the ticket with Donglas, a northern man, who pretends to be in favor of squatter sovereignty. It must be as difficult to reconcile the principles of Dougios and Johnson in Georgia, us it is here-Douglas declaring that the people of a territory can vote slavery out of it, (if the supreme court does not forbid) and the other asserting that they cannot prohibit it, and the office? It is a chameful state of things if they attempt to do so congress should veto the act.

A lawyer in Galesburg, Ill., has performed the great feat of walking from the public square in Galesburgh to the public square in Knoxville (six miles) and back In one hour and fifty eight minutes, for a murae of $20. The time allowed was two hours. The Observer says that several bugwhich were in a perfect foam of sweat.

Political News.

A great deal of fear has been entertained and expressed by certain people, that the views of Dr. Lord of Dartmouth College, relative to slavery, etc., would corrupt the minds of those students under his charge. How groundless these fears are, the following exhibit of the political status of the students shows: Republicans 230, demomen 6.

The result of the Oregon election is a terrible blow to the democrats, who confidently expected Shiel's election, and the choice of a legislature favorable to Lane and his friends. It is surmised that this election will add thousands to the republican vote by showing those who always want to be on the strongest side, that neither wing of the democracy has the slightest possible chance. At a pole raising in Saginaw, Mich., on the 8th, Henry Kercholf and F. Leopold, two prominent German citizens who have hitherto been the leaders of the German demorracy in that city, appeared upon the stand and renounced their allegiance to the domocratic party. There is great cuthusiasm among the Germans of that locality for Lincoln and Hamlin.

Among the democratic organs which have declared for Breckinridge in western New York are the Buffalo Evening Post. the Dunkirk Press (the only democratic paper in Chatauque), and the Genessee Democrat.

The Vevay (Ind.) News has come out for Breckinridge and Lane. In so doing, it says it "but expresses the will of two-thirds of the democratic party in old Switzerland county."

The Atlanta (Ga.) Southern Confederacy notorious for its black and white lists" of northern merchants a few months ago, has come out for Douglas. Like Johnson, the Douglasite caudidate for vice president, this organ belongs to the fire enting disunion school.

No Fusion in Laurois.-The Breekinridge and Lane state convention met at Springfield, Ill., yesterday, in which Douglas was bitterly denounced by the chairman. A full Breckinridge and Lane ticket was nominated including electors. Their nominee for governor is Thomas M. Hope, of Madison county. Speeches were made by le has been abusing the Republicans just like be used to abuse the old Whigs. I am fixed of this kind of warfare; I think it is honor of the nominations,

The report of the Govode committee makes 840 printed pages. Of the 100,000 copies ordered by the House, 30,000 will be ready for delivery in the course of a few days. Congress at the late session ordered printing involving an expense of at least $800,000,

Mr. Jerela, Buperintendent of the Mil. & Miss. ruitroad lus hepn overhaufed in Milwaukee for issuing a handbill intended for eastern circulation, recommending passangers to take the Northwestern road at Chicago and then the Mil. & Miss, road co Prairie du Chieu, to avoid a mile of omnibus ride in Milwaukee. The Free Demoeral thinks this bandbill from Mr. Jereis, so for us it has any effect, should be only to incite their business men to the removal of this damaging impediment. Sensible.

> A Washington telegram states that Semitor Bright & Co. have resolved to run no Breckinridge ticket in Indianu, but "allow" that state to go for Douglas, in aid of the scheme of throwing the election into the house. We reckon that Indiana has a way of her own this time, and will not "allow" herself to be carried for anybody but Lincoln and Hamlin.

FROM THE MINES .- A letter (dated June 17th,) has been received in town from Mr. Albert F. Hunt, who formerly resided here, but who is now located at California Gulch, Arkansas, Mines, which is near the head of the Arkansas river, about 120 miles southwest of Denter. He is himself interested in a claim, upon which he is working but has not taken out any gold yet, as there is considerable digging to get down to the gold bearing rock. The snowy range of the Rocky Mountains is in sight of bis camp, upon which snow remains constantly. The weather is pleasant, but the nights are freezing cold.

Be Sixty vessels in a your, and sometimes twelve in a month, leave the port of New York equipped and furnished for engaging in the slave trade. We have a law making this trade piracy, punishable with death. We have a president sworn to execute the laws, but has one man ever been hung for this crime since that president took that any contor could, and honor type inhor more than the praise of men or the resolutions of conventions. On our way to get the process of the proces and a disgrace to our country that it exists. Let us put a man in the presidential chair who will do his duty and uproot this bloody and infinnous traffic.

It is rather remarkable, says the Cincinnati Gazette, that all of Douglas' great a man as he is. I know that in voc-most ardent adherents at the north claim the extreme southern states for him. While him conducts supporters claim for him the his southern supporters claim for him the gies went with him, the horses attached to states of the north and appthwest, which are sure for Lincoln.

An Interesting Letter.

We find the following interesting letter from John Hanks—Lincoln's early purtner in the rail-splitting business—in the Deca-tur Chronicio. Hanks is an honest old Jackson Domocratic farmer, who shared with the next President the privations and bardships of pioneer life in Illinois, before the days of railroads and canals. His letter s a plain, unvarnished statement, that will lnd a response in the breasts of hundreds of crats, including both wings 78. Union party old Democratic farmers of the pioneer times? Editor of the Decatur Chronicle:

Dear Sire: The following item appeared in the Columbus Statesman a few days ago, which I take from the Coles County Ledger: "HANES AGAINST LINCOLN." "We were informed a day or two ago by a delegate to the Baltimore Convention, who called at our office, that John Hanks, the man who assisted Aba Lincoln to make those rails about which the Republicans are make ing such a terrible hubbab, has announced himself apposed to the election of Lincoln. Hanks, who has never been a Democrat, is against the Republican nominee because he knows Lincoln to be a humbug, and nothing Hurralı for Hanks!

To this article I desire briefly to reply.—
If my choice for President, or how I shall vote as between the candidates for that office wore as netween the candidates for that onless is worth considering at all, I claim it as a simple right to be correctly represented. am but a farmer, and regret to say not an educated one. I have never been a candidate for any office, nor do I expect ever to be; whilst I can with all truthfulness say this, yet I have never been a negative man in politics. From my boyhood I have been a constant voter with the Democratic party in all essential elections; I have thought that party to be upright and straightforward that party to be upright and academic terms in all the principles it has really adopted.—So late as 1858 I voted for Mr. Douglas and against my old friend bincoln. For forty years I have looked upon the party with pride and bailed its success with pleasure; but as Mr. Douglas made a speech in Dicasinal Market and principles and because the property works as but as Mr. Doughs that a spectral but it is 1858, and in my hearing spoke so pleasantly and so honorably of the old Whig party and Mr. Clay, its leader, after having for fifteen years, in discussing general politics, when I used to love to listen to him so tics, when I used to love to listen to him so well, spoke so complainingly and so housively of that party and of Mr. Clay, charging upon it and him many bad and mean things, until listening at him I learned to look upon both as dangerous and full of evil. The thought struck me that for the future I would never indee of a party on its leader. would never judge of a party or its leaders would never judge of a party or its leaders by what an opponent might say, and this conclusion I mean to follow the balance of my life. How foolish it is to abuse a party because my friend may do so, and then praise the same party because that friend may change and do so; he may be designing-I would, in all probability be a dupe. Ever would in all probability be a dupe. Ever since Mr. Douglas made that speechin 1855 ther said in that speech that he was in the helit of sometimes changing his politics, I did not know but that it was about time for him to begin to exense and cease to abuse the Republicans, and made up my mind to pet him go in time.

Now, as to entirely changing my politics I cannot say I have done this, but for the life of me I can see nothing in the republican party that any honest democrat can opcan party that any nonest himograt can op-pose. It is true, were they such a party as Mr. Doughas used to say they were, I could see objectionable features about it; but then is it wise to believe everything Mr. Douglas rescued during the mass convention held at milkwaukee. We understand that Jehn "flew around," got some soldiers and old muskets together, but he was more seared than harmed. Had he not better tender his services to Bomba of Naples, who is alarmed just now at the prospect of some of his prisoners being released. and still seen that man true to his colors, and still seen that man true to us colors, rearring and re-cutering the field to try to uphold and successfully plant his colors on the side of victory, when all the trace we knew be had but to change once to win, and yet never has changed, I think I may say never faltered, how are we to respect him? Such a men I have known Mr. Lincoln for thirty years to be.

In havhood's days we toiled together nany are the days we inject together;— many are the days we have lagged the heavy car together on the Ohio, the Himos and the Mississippi rivers; many are the long cold days we have journeyed over the wild prairies and through the torests with gan and axe, and though it is not pleasant to refer back to it, well do I remember when we set out together in the cold winter light procession.

At last, one day at home, we heard that the republican state convention was to be held at Decatur and that they were going for Ahe Lincoln for president.

As soon as I found this out, I went into town und told a friend of Abe's that as great and honest merit was at last to be awarded in the person of my friend Mr. Lincoln, by the republican party, I thought of the hard and trying struggles of his early days, and recollecting the rails we had made together thirty years ago, made up my mind to present some of them to that denvention as a testimonial of the beginning of one of the greatest living men of the age, believing they would speak more in his praise if Abe should be nominated for President I would vote for him; everybody knows what he has been, and I rejoice that I live to give this testimony to his gondness and honesty, and hope I shall live to vote for him for President of the United States next November. No PAPER To-Morrow.-In order to give those employed in our office an opportunity to attend the republican mass meeting at Beloit, no paper will be issued tomorrow. From present appearances there will be so general a stampede from our city, that there will be but few left to read ! the paper, except democrats, if it should be printed; and as the news generally is not very agreeable to them, about these days, they will not, we hope, be particularly disappointed.

Ha! for Beloit.

There will be a very large turn-out from our city to the republican mass meeting at Beloit to-morrow. A portion of them will go "overland" and unite with the delegations from the towns south and east of us. Another section will take the cars in the morning; and still another crowd will go down in the eight o'clock train in the eve-

JANESVILLE, JCLY 12, 1860. The market for most kinds of grain continues to decline. To-day common to choice wheat sold at 88@92, Corn at 35c shelled, and 25c ear, and oats at 20c. Receipts in all about 500 bushels, mostly cate. The probability is that wheat will go considerably lower within the next ten days, as the new crop will soon make its appearance in the market, and buyers seem rather disposed to let the thing drop for a low starting point.-The lakeshore and eastern nurkets are also declining. Probably by design, as the Tribune has manifested a hostility towards Wisconsin on several occasions before.

JUNGE PAINE AND THE HABEAS CORPUS. Much misunderstanding seems to exist with reference to the resent action of Judge Paine on the application of the friends of Booth for a writ of habeas corpus. If we are cor-rectly informed, the Judge simply re-affirmof his position before taken, that it was not od his position before taken, that it was not comparent for him to act because of his pre-tions relation to the prisoner as counsel.— It is true a new question was raised—that of the legality of using the Custom House as a prison, as long as the jails of the state were at the service of the government. But the Judge considered that all these questions to the service of the property of the principal considered that all these presents of the principal consistence of the principal consistence. were subordinate to the chief question of the constitutionality of the law, and as that was the point on which he had committed himself as counsel, he was estopped from ncting.
